

Course title and STARS number	Must be taken by	Notes
General Safety and Emergency Preparedness EHS-4200-WEB	All who work at Stanford University	Tier I training
Biosafety EHS-1500-WEB	All who work with biological agents	Tier II training
Bloodborne Pathogens EHS-1600 – WEB	All who work with blood, blood products, human or non-human primate cells, including cell culture, or other potentially infectious materials	Tier II training. BBP training MUST be taken annually.
Exposure Control Plan	All who work with blood, blood products, human or non-human primate cells, including cell culture, or other potentially infectious materials	Part II of Bloodborne Pathogen training. Template for plan can be found at: Exposure Control Plan . Once completed, plan to remain in laboratory. Plan to be reviewed annually and updated as necessary.
DOT: Shipping Dangerous Biological Goods EHS-2700	All who package and/or ship dangerous biological materials or any package containing Dry Ice.	Training MUST be taken every two years.
Agent Specific Training	All who work with biohazardous agents (BSL-2 or above).	Tier III training. Training provided in person by PI or suitably knowledgeable personnel. Training to provide information for specific agent,