

SHIPPING OF DANGEROUS BIOLOGICAL GOODS
CERTIFICATION PROVIDED FOR STANFORD UNIVERSITY STAFF, FACULTY & STUDENTS ONLY

Print out a copy of the exam and when finished mail to Ellyn Segal, Biosafety Manager, MC 8007. Please fill out all appropriate information below. Failing to do so will result in not receiving a certificate of completion.

Name _____ Dept. _____ Date _____

Ph. Number _____ e-mail _____ MC _____

Stanford University ID Number _____ 2007

This is an open book exam. Use any means available to research your answers.

1. Infectious Substances are categorized as:
 - a. Category A
 - b. Category B
 - c. Genetically modified organisms
 - d. Biological material

2. A Specimen that contains substances which cause non-life threatening or fatal disease in humans or animals is categorized (for shipment purposes) as:
 - a. Infectious Substances
 - b. Biological Substances
 - c. Genetically modified organisms
 - d. Unregulated biological material

3. When shipping a material categorized as Biological Substance the correct UN number is:
 - a. 2814
 - b. 3373
 - c. 602
 - d. 650

4. UN 2900 signifies:
 - a. Unregulated biological material
 - b. Dry Ice
 - c. Genetically modified microorganism
 - d. Infectious substances affecting animals only

5. When shipping Biological specimens, which packing instructions must be followed?
 - a. 602
 - b. 650
 - c. 904
 - d. 913

6. Dry Ice must be shipped as a Dangerous Good.
 - a. True
 - b. False

7. Which of the following must be used to label a package that contains dry ice?
 - a. UN 2900
 - b. UN 3373 label
 - c. Class 9 label
 - d. UN 2814

8. The statement "Prior arrangements as required by the IATA Dangerous Goods Regulations 1.3.3.1 have been made" must be present when shipping:
 - a. Biological specimens
 - b. Infectious substances
 - c. Genetically modified organisms
 - d. Unrestricted biological material

9. A Shippers Declaration is not required for:
 - a. Biological specimens
 - b. Infectious substances
 - c. Genetically modified organisms
 - d. Infectious substances shipped with dry ice

10. The emergency phone number on the Shippers Declaration must connect to:
 - a. The Shipper
 - b. The Department Chair
 - c. The Stanford University operator
 - d. A living, knowledgeable, person available at all times.

11. When shipping a Category A package, how long must you retain a copy of your Shipper's Declaration for Dangerous Goods?
 - a. One month
 - b. Six months
 - c. 375 days
 - d. Two years

12. Certification for shipping of Biological Goods is valid for:
 - a. Until you leave Stanford
 - b. Two years
 - c. Until regulations change
 - d. B and C