

REFERENCE
Return by January 15, 2010
(post marked or emailed by)

1. To the applicant:

Applicants are responsible for ensuring that reference materials are postmarked or emailed by January 15, 2010. Letters may be submitted in either English or Japanese. We accept pdf files as well as email attachments.

2. To the referee:

You are being asked by an Inter-University Center applicant to serve as a referee.

The Inter-University Center for Japanese Language Studies (IUC) offers an intensive 10-month language training program at the intermediate and advanced level for students who are planning careers relating to Japan. The program is designed to bring each participant to a level of proficiency sufficient for academic or professional use. Training focuses on development of the ability to converse in Japanese on specialized subjects, to comprehend and deliver public presentations, and to read and write materials in Japanese in order to function professionally in academia, business, government, and other fields. All teaching materials are in Japanese, all instruction is carried out in Japanese, and all teachers are native speakers of Japanese.

Please return your letter of recommendation directly to the IUC at the address listed below. Applicants are responsible for ensuring that reference materials arrive by January 15, 2010. Letters may be submitted in either English or Japanese. We accept pdf files as well as email attachments.

Inter University Center for Japanese Language Studies
Freeman Spogli Institute for International Studies
Encina Hall, Room E009
Stanford University
Stanford CA 94305-6055 USA

Email: stacey.campbell@stanford.edu