

Calvin F. Quate

B.S. 1944, University of Utah.
Ph.D. 1950, Stanford University.

U S Navy with rank of Lt (jg) 1944-1946.

Bell Laboratories, 1949-58. Sandia Corporation, 1959-61.

Stanford University, 1961-present.

Guggenheim Fellow and Fulbright Scholar, Faculte des Sciences, Montpellier, France, 1968-69.

Chair, Department of Applied Physics, 1969-72, 1978-81.

Associate Dean, School of Humanities and Sciences, 1972-74, 1982-83.

Member, National Academy of Engineering, National Academy of Sciences, Royal Society of London (Foreign Member).

Fellow, American Physical Society; Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers;

American Academy of Arts and Sciences;

Acoustical Society of America, Royal Microscopical Society (Honorary). IEEE Morris N. Liebmann Award;

Rank Prize for Opto-electronics, IEEE Medal of Honor; President's National Medal of Science.