Symantec Solutions 2007 Bus Tour

Tired of conference rooms and tradeshow?

Symantec is hitting the road and we're headed your way! The Symantec Solutions Tour luxury bus is embarking on an exciting technical journey across the country.

When?

We will be coming to the Bay Area on:

Friday, October 19th

And we'd like to visit Stanford University!

Hop on the bus and CONNECT with Symantec! Participate in exclusive live product demonstrations and training sessions; showcasing the latest Symantec product solutions. Take the opportunity to network one on one with Symantec training representatives.

We will be highlighting and showcasing the following:

- Data Center Foundation
- Enterprise Security
- Information Risk Management
- Windows Protection Awareness (SMB & Enterprise)
