POST CORE CONCENTRATION

Majors must complete 15 units of post-core course work in an area of concentration. The courses taken to satisfy this requirement must be approved by an advisor, who is appointed no later than the selection of a concentration area. This is usually done midway through the junior year, and must be done no later than the end of the second week of Autumn Quarter in the senior year.

Concentration Areas include:

- Advanced Methods of Policy Analysis
- Design of Public Institutions
- Development and Growth Policies
- Education
- Environment, Resources, and Population
- Health Care
- International Policies
- Law and the Legal System
- Science and Technology Policy
- Social Policy: Discrimination, Crime, Poverty
- Urban and Regional Policy

The Director will be your advisor until you pick a concentration area, which should be selected during Autumn quarter of your junior year. At that time you will choose a new advisor, depending on which concentration area you select. Is there anything you would like your advisors to know about you (for example: special interests, athletic activities, problems, etc...)?
