

HOUSING FOR STANFORD DANCE WEEKEND SUMMER 2009

Roble Hall Single and Double Rooms

Price per Night:

$57.69 for half of a double or $79.87 for a single

Eligibility:

Stanford Dance Weekend registered participants
Individuals travelling alone or in pairs

Minimum Length of Stay:

Two nights.

Description of Residential Building:

Roble Hall was built in 1917, and is one of Stanford's oldest and most historic residence halls. Roble was last renovated in 2006. It is a three-story dormitory with men's and women's bathrooms on the hall and rooms in various configurations. Common areas include lounges and a computer room.

Located on the west side of campus, within easy walking distance of Tresidder Union cafes.

Room Configuration:

All beds are twin extra-long. Single rooms have one bed. The doubles are in three-room quads, which have two bedrooms (each containing two twin beds) and a shared sitting/study area between the two bedrooms.

Furnishings:

Extra long twin beds, nightstands, desks, desk chairs, and dressers. Many rooms also contain sinks for brushing teeth and washing hands. There are no televisions or decorations.

Laundry Facilities:

A laundry room is located in the basement of the "B" wing of the building. Lodging fees include Student Housing's "Just Like Home" laundry program, giving residents unlimited use of these washers and dryers; no coins or cards required.

Parking Permits:

Parking permits are required for campus parking and can be purchased online through the housing application or in person from the Governor's Corner Conference Front Desk (CFD). Daily Conference Parking Scratchers are $4.50/day and Monthly Parking Permits are $23.50.

Fees and Deposits:

Full payment for your entire stay, including a $25 processing fee, must be paid upon check-in at the Conference Front Desk.

There is also an $89 key deposit to be given by cash or check at time of check-in.

We accept MasterCard, Visa, or cash for payments. We do not accept any other credit cards.
