

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION

2007-08

Unless otherwise specified, courses numbered from 1 through 99 are primarily for first- and second-year undergraduates; courses numbered from 100 through 199 are for third- and fourth-year undergraduates; and those from 200 through 699 are for graduate students.

Amendments to course offerings announced in the Stanford Bulletin are found in the Time Schedule of Classes, issued quarterly.

Beginning in Autumn Quarter 2005, a modified and redefined set of undergraduate General Education Requirements, designated in this bulletin as GERs, went into effect. Students who matriculated Autumn Quarter 2004-05 or later are subject to the revised General Education Requirements effective Autumn Quarter 2005-06. Students who matriculated Autumn Quarter 2003-04 or earlier remain on the old General Education Requirements, but may elect to change to the new system. Students interested in electing the revised GER system should contact the Office of the University Registrar. No further changes are allowed once a student has elected to move to the new system.

SUMMER SESSION

This bulletin includes, for the Summer Session, only those courses that can be tentatively scheduled at publication time by each department. For the complete list of courses and faculty, refer to <http://summer.stanford.edu>, updated in February.

SUBJECT CODES

Throughout the bulletin, Axxess subject codes have been printed wherever relevant. A complete list of subject codes is printed in the Appendix on the last page of this bulletin.

COGNATE COURSES

Cognate course listings in a given department or program refer to course offerings in other departments and programs which may be used to fulfill some major, minor, or honors program requirement. Students must consult the degree requirements section of their department or program, or the department or program's student services office, to determine the applicability of a given cognate course to a major, minor, or honors program.

LANGUAGE COURSES

All courses in language instruction, except classes in Latin, classical Greek, classical Chinese, and classical Japanese, are listed in the "Language Center" section of this bulletin. Foreign language literature and general interest courses are listed in the sections of the relevant department.

TIME SCHEDULE OF CLASSES

Each quarter, the Office of the University Registrar produces a printed Time Schedule of Classes. Changes to course listings made subsequent to the printing of this bulletin are reflected in this publication. Students should consult Axxess at <http://axess.stanford.edu> for the most up-to-date class scheduling information.
