

GENERAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS

SPRING QUARTER COURSES CERTIFIED AS FULFILLING GENERAL EDUCATION REQUIREMENTS

Spring Quarter courses that have been certified as fulfilling the General Education Requirements in 2007-08 are listed below.

The IHUM requirement may be satisfied in two ways:

Introduction to the Humanities courses (one quarter, introductory course followed by two quarter, thematic sequence), or

The Program in Structured Liberal Education (an intensive, three quarter, residence-based program satisfying the Area 1 requirement, the University first-year writing requirement, and one additional General Education Requirement in the humanities).

See the Introduction to the Humanities web site at <http://ihum.stanford.edu> for more information. See the Stanford Bulletin for a complete listing of IHUM courses.

GER:IHUM. INTRODUCTION TO THE HUMANITIES

Introduction to the Humanities offers courses which satisfy a three quarter General Education Requirement (GER) for first-year students. The following courses satisfy the GER:IHUM-3 (Spring) requirement. Note that Winter/Spring sequences must be completed in their entirety for General Education Requirement fulfillment.
