Entrepreneurial Ideals and Social Innovation
Focus House
2008-2009 Draw Priority Application

Name: _____ SUID: _____ Class: _____

Major(s) and concentrations: _____

Email: _____ Phone: _____ Current Residence: _____

The Entrepreneurial (Social / Business) Ideals and Social Innovation Focus is built around residents who have a keen interest in the development of economic and/or social enterprises and have concerns about how entrepreneurs stay connected with social values that help communities, locally and globally, become self-sustainable and socially prosperous.

Casa Naranja is a relatively small residential environment with a great opportunity for intimate dialogue and cross-class interaction. We will analyze emerging issues and discuss the problems and benefits they raise concerning environmental impact, community development, social justice, and local involvement through citizen initiatives.

 Program Participation Idea:

1. Please describe your entrepreneurial or social innovation interests and experience.
2. Please list community (local, regional and/or global) values you would like to have discussed.
3. How do you propose to involve peers in your focus program ideas?
4. How would you process a discussion between entrepreneurs and community activists?
5. What technologies would be helpful in pulling together a discussion or disseminating ideas on particular points of interest?
6. Who is the Stanford University academy or local institutions would you like to have come and discuss their ideas and work?

Proposed Program Participation Idea should be no longer than 1-page.

The program should also be feasible given the resources available to you (read: not extravagant). You will need to think about a budget, contacting speakers, and any other necessary arrangements. Already established programs put on by Residential Education or other on-campus staff does not count. You are expected to implement the program and be the primary organizer. You may receive assistance from Focus Assistants and other residents.

I am requesting special priority from Naranja. I agree to implement my program proposal; attend at least three other house programs per quarter; abide by the rules and policies of the house governing resident behavior; and help build a respectful and open community in the house.
