

Stanford Seminar on Science, Technology, and Society

Fall 2006 Schedule

Oct 6: Trevor Pinch, Cornell University

“New reputation economies and their problems: A study of reviewing on Amazon.com and Acidplanet.com”

Comment: Fred Turner

Oct 20: David Guston, Arizona State University

“Anticipatory Governance of Emerging Technologies”

Comment: Patrick Windham

Nov 10: David Winickoff, UC Berkeley

“World Trade and the Regulation of Life: Science, Power, and International Order”

Comment: Tonya Putnam

Nov 17: Sherry Turkle, MIT

“New Complicities for Companionship: A Nascent Robotics Culture”

Comment: Jeremy Bailenson

Dec 1: Jessica Riskin, Stanford University

“Mechanical Christs, Hydraulic Brutes and the Invention of Consciousness”

Comment: Dan Edelstein

Dec 8: Leigh Star, Santa Clara University

“Orphans of Infrastructure”

Comment: Ray McDermott

Where: Encina Hall East, Room 207, 616 Serra St., Stanford. When: 12:00 - 1:30 pm, Fridays. For lunch, please RSVP to jwidman@stanford.edu by Wednesday before the seminar.

Sponsored by the Program in Science, Technology, and Society. For questions about this poster, contact (650) 723-2565.

