

STANFORD SEMINAR ON

Science, TECHNOLOGY, AND Society

Fall 2008 Schedule

October 10 Barton Bernstein, Stanford University
"Reconsidering J. Robert Oppenheimer"
Comment: David Holloway

October 17 Paul Schulman and Emery Roe, Mills College
"Reliability's Ordeal in a Critical Infrastructure"
Comment: Todd LaPorte

October 31 Itty Abraham, University of Texas at Austin
"Rare Earths: Travancore in the Annals of the Cold War, 1945-47"
Comment: Alex Montgomery

November 7 Rachel Prentice, Cornell University
"Drilling Surgeons: Cultivating Techniques and Ethics in the Operating Room"
Comment: Lawrence Cohen

November 24 Lucy Suchman, Lancaster University
(With Work, Technology, & Organization)
"Subject-Objects in the Sciences of the Artificial"
Comment: Pamela Hinds

Where Encina Hall East, Room 207, 616 Serra St., Stanford.

When 12:00 -1:30 pm. Drinks and light snacks will be provided; please RSVP to connors@stanford.edu.

SPONSORED BY THE SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY, AND SOCIETY PROGRAM.