

Stanford Seminar on Science, Technology, and Society

Winter 2007 Schedule

Jan 19: Robert Proctor (Stanford University)
"The Cigarette in Global Lung History"
Comment: Matthew Kohrman

Jan 26: Lee Clarke (Rutgers University)
"Worst Cases: Types of Rationality in Thinking about Disaster"
Comment: Lynn Eden

Feb 9: Ann Keller, (UC Berkeley)
"Credibility and Relevance in Environmental Policy:
Measuring Strategies and Performance among Science
Assessment Organizations"
Comment: Paul Schulman

Feb 16: Ruth Schwartz-Cowan (Univ. of Pennsylvania)
"Understanding – and Misunderstanding – the Sickle Cell Anemia Screening Programs of the 1970s"
Comment: David Magnus

Feb 23: Ben Orlove (UC Davis) and Steve Schneider (Stanford University)
"Vulnerability, Adaptive Capacity, and Commensuration:
A Cross-disciplinary Dialogue on Climate Change"

March 9: Martha Lampland (UC San Diego)
"Knowledge and Expertise in the Transition to Socialism:
Agricultural Wages, Productivity and Work Science in Mid-Century Hungary (1920-1956)"
Comment: Norman Naimark

Where: Encina Hall East, Room 207, 616 Serra St., Stanford.

When: 12:00 - 1:30 pm, Fridays.

Please bring a bag lunch. Drinks and light snacks will be provided, so please RSVP to jwidman@stanford.edu .

Sponsored by the Program in Science, Technology, and Society.