

STANFORD SEMINAR ON

Science, TECHNOLOGY, AND Society

Winter 2009 Schedule

January 16

(With History and Philosophy
of Science & Technology)

Eric Schatzberg, University of Wisconsin

"Redrawing Conceptual Boundaries: Art, Science and Technology from the Enlightenment to Veblen"

Comment: Henry Lowood

January 23

John Willinsky, Stanford University

"The Stratified Economics of Scholarly Publishing and the Move to Open Access"

Comment: Paul David

February 6

(With History and Philosophy
of Science and Technology)

Gabrielle Hecht, University of Michigan

"African Bodies and Nuclear Things: Scenes from the Transnational Production of Uranium"

February 13

Kelly Moore, University of Cincinnati

"You As a User: Changes in Audiences and Social Value of Nutrition Advice in Today's Health, 1925-1979"

Comment: TBA

February 20

Jonathan Sterne, McGill University

"The Historical Emergence of Perceptual Coding: Listening and Noise Across Fields 1955-1979"

Comment: Fred Turner

Where Encina Hall East, Room 207, 616 Serra St., Stanford.

When 12:00 -1:30 pm. Drinks and light snacks will be provided; please RSVP to connors@stanford.edu.

SPONSORED BY THE SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY, AND SOCIETY PROGRAM.