

STANFORD IN KYOTO, JAPAN SAFETY & SECURITY REPORT

October 1, 2011

This report has been compiled in compliance with the US federal Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act and the Higher Education Opportunity Act.

Safety on the Stanford in Kyoto campus is a natural source of concern for students, parents and University employees. Education - the business of Stanford University - can take place only in an environment in which each student and employee feels safe and secure. Stanford recognizes this and employs a number of security measures to protect the members of its community. The local police force, and the students and employees themselves all share in the responsibility of making the Stanford in Kyoto program a safe place to study, work and live.

SECURITY

Police Protection

The Stanford in Kyoto program is under the jurisdiction of the Kyoto Prefectural Police. The specific Prefectural Police Office with jurisdiction for the area in which the program is located is the Kamigyo Police Headquarters, 692-1 Bakurocho, Onmae-dori, Imakoji-sagaru, Kamigyo-ku, Kyoto City Tel (075) 464-0110.. All statistics at the close of this document are supplied by the Director of Stanford in Kyoto program. Crime statistics for Kyoto and surrounding area are available from the prefectural police.

Timely Warnings

In the event that a situation arises, either on or off campus, that, in the judgment of the Director of Stanford in Kyoto, constitutes an ongoing or continuing threat to the community, a program-wide "timely warning" will be issued. The warning may be issued through any means appropriate including: email lists, flyers and phone calls. Anyone with information warranting a timely warning should report the circumstances to the program staff by phone or in person.

Security and Access to the Stanford in Kyoto facility

The entrance doors to the building in which is located have locking devices controlled by the Doshisha University Security Office. These exterior doors are automatically opened on workdays at 8 a.m. and locked at 9:45 p.m. At other times one can enter only by use of a special pass card, which must be checked out and returned to the Security Office. The Stanford in Kyoto program does not maintain any cards. Exit-only doors cannot be opened from the outside. Separate keys for individual offices and classrooms are issued by the university to the Stanford in Kyoto Office. Facility employees perform routine maintenance throughout the facility and respond to any reports of problems with locks and lights. Students living in homestays may be issued house keys by their homestay families and should follow family regulations regarding when doors must be locked.

REPORTING CRIME AND SUSPICIOUS ACTIVITY

Reporting Crime

All students, faculty, staff and visitors are encouraged to report all crimes and public safety related incidents on campus to the Doshisha University Security Office and off campus to the Prefectural Police Headquarters in the district of the incident. Anytime you need immediate police, fire, or medical response, dial 110 for police and 119 for medical and ambulance. For a non-emergency police response on the Doshisha campus, dial Telephone (075) 251-3015.

Call 110 if you experience, hear or observe any of the following:

- A whistle, scream or call for help
- Any crime that is occurring or has occurred
- A strange car repeatedly driving up and down the street
- If you see someone suspicious entering your neighbor's room or home, or entering an office or lab with no apparent legitimate business purpose
- Seeing someone acting suspiciously in a parking area or at a bike rack near your home, dorm, or work

Remember that the police cannot be everywhere at once, and they depend on individuals in the community to assist them in crime prevention by reporting suspicious activities.

Important Telephone Numbers

Emergencies (police)	110
Medical Emergencies (fire, ambulance)	119
Director, Andrew Horvat	090-6967-3687
Student and Academic Services Coordinator, Hiromi Uehira,	090-5127-8038

Off-Campus Crime

When off-campus, all members of the Stanford community are encouraged to report all crimes and public safety related incidents to the local police agency in a timely manner. In case of an emergency, please call 110.

University judicial policy applies year-round to all on-campus activities, and to any acts that threaten the safety and integrity of the University community regardless of where such acts occur.

Location of Registered Sex Offender Information

The Japanese National Police Agency is developing a system for tracking sex offenders and a Japanese equivalent of Megan's Law is under consideration; but as yet there is no registry of sex offenders. Information about the criminal history of individuals is not made available to the public at this time.

ALCOHOL, DRUGS, WORKPLACE VIOLENCE AND WEAPONS

University Policy on Controlled Substances and Alcohol

It is the policy of Stanford University to maintain a drug-free workplace on campus. The unlawful manufacture, distribution, dispensation, possession, and/or use of controlled substances or the unlawful possession, use, or distribution of alcohol is prohibited on the Stanford campus, in the work place, or as part of any University activities. The workplace and campus are presumed to include all Stanford premises where activities of the University are conducted. Violation of this policy will result in disciplinary sanctions up to and including termination of employment or expulsion of students. Violations may also be referred to the appropriate authorities for prosecution. This policy will be reviewed at least biannually. Please see Administrative Guide Memo 26.3 for the complete University Controlled Substance and Alcohol Policy http://adminguide.stanford.edu/23_6.pdf

The offices of the Dean of Students and Residential Education make available a detailed description of policies, applications, consequences of violation, criminal and civil liability, the role of residence staff, guidelines for event planners, and campus helping resources concerned with alcohol and its use on campus.

Drug and Alcohol Abuse Education Programs

Vaden Health Center at Stanford University provides a variety of education programs for drug and alcohol abuse prevention. Programs include educational activities, alcohol education seminars, individual consultation and an academic course. <http://vaden.stanford.edu/wellness/substanceAbuse.html>

Drinking and Driving

Besides the legal risks, you could be putting the lives of your friends in danger by letting them drive after drinking. If you plan on using alcohol, you should always designate a driver who will not be drinking. Stanford students are not permitted to drive during the academic session.

University Policy on Violence in the Workplace

Stanford University strives to provide a safe environment in which to work; therefore, the university will not tolerate violence or threats of violence in any university facility where employees work. All weapons are banned from university premises unless written university policy gives permission. Employees who violate this policy will be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination. Employees who intentionally bring false charges will also be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination.” Refer to Administrative Guide http://adminguide.stanford.edu/23_9.pdf

Weapons on Campus

- All weapons are prohibited on the Stanford and Stanford Branch Campuses. Except for local or government law enforcement officers. In addition to firearms, most knives that are capable of inflicting death by stabbing and all straight razors are prohibited.
- Weapons are also prohibited in student residences.

CAMPUS SECURITY AUTHORITIES

The US federal law known as the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (Clery Act) requires “Campus Security Authorities” to report campus crime statistics to the Department of Education on an annual basis. At Stanford, the Department of Public Safety gathers and compiles the statistical information from all of the Campus Security Authorities.

“Campus Security Authorities,” as specified by the Clery Act, include security and law enforcement officers; deans (or other senior student administrative personnel); coaches; residence hall staff; overseers and advisors to student clubs and organizations; and other campus officials who have "significant responsibility for student and campus activities," such as, but not limited to, student housing, student discipline and campus judicial proceedings. Professional and pastoral counselors are exempt from the reporting requirement while working within the scope of a license or certification.

Under the law, the Stanford in Kyoto Director and the Stanford Professor with the program are also considered to be campus security authorities. Campus Security Authorities provide STATISTICAL information only to the Stanford Department of Public Safety. This process ensures that the information provided to SUDPS does not include personal identifying information.

CRIME PREVENTION EDUCATION PROGRAMS

Crime prevention is a top priority. During orientation, issues of general safety, student conduct, sexual harassment, and substance abuse policies are reviewed. A set of emergency contacts numbers is issued to each student and to each homestay family. Students receive a bi-lingual booklet published by Kyoto City that lists 24 hours emergency numbers for police, fire and ambulance, gas leaks, earthquakes, typhoons, traffic accidents and lost and found, as well as contact numbers and locations of emergency hospitals.

SEXUAL ASSAULT

Sexual Assault is the commission of an unwanted sexual act, whether by an acquaintance or by a stranger, that occurs without indication of consent of both individuals, or that occurs under threat or coercion. Sexual assault can occur either forcibly and / or against a person's will, or when a person is incapable of giving consent. A person is legally incapable of giving consent if under 18 years of age; if intoxicated by drugs and/or alcohol; if developmentally disabled; or if temporarily or permanently mentally or physically unable to do so. Anyone can be the target of sexual assault, regardless of age, gender, race, ethnicity, sexual orientation, sexual history, or social class. There is no stereotypical victim or rapist. Acquaintances (people who know each other in some way) are involved in 73% rapes in America.¹ A Department of Justice study indicates that a woman has between a 20 and 25% chance of being sexually assaulted during her years at college.²

Sexual assaults should be reported as soon as possible to police authorities at 110 and to the SCTI Director at 090 6967 3687.

Prevention - Evaluate and Communicate Your Intentions

It is important that you decide for yourself what you want to happen in intimate situations. Both women and men should consider the following:

- Pay close attention to what is happening around you. Clearly communicate your desires, limits, and intentions to your date, partner, or friend.
- Intercourse constitutes rape when a person is under the influence of drugs and/or alcohol and is unable to give informed consent. Be aware that alcohol and other drugs can impair your judgment, and cause you to be slow or unable to react to unwanted sexual contact or to escape from a dangerous situation.
- Consent is "positive cooperation in an act or attitude pursuant to an exercise of free will."
- Previous sexual contact, regardless of frequency, does not constitute consent for sexual activity in the present or future. A current or previous dating relationship does not constitute the basis for implied consent either.
- Do not assume that sexual intercourse is permissible if a person is dressed in a certain way.
- "No" means "No."

Prevention – Education

- Stanford Sexual Assault Prevention Programs works to prevent sexual violence and harassment through education, awareness, and skill building. Programs include educational seminars, resource information and referral, and the new student orientation theatrical production Real World: Stanford. <http://vaden.stanford.edu>
- The Health Library is a comprehensive resource center that contains journals, books, and videos on a wide range of contemporary college health issues including sexual assault. <http://vaden.stanford.edu>
- Stanford Health Improvement Program (HIP, 723-9649) – At various times throughout the calendar year, HIP offers classes and seminars for university employees in personal safety and self-defense. <http://hip.stanford.edu/>

If You Have Been Sexually Assaulted

The first priority is your immediate safety. Don't be afraid to seek medical attention or ask for help. You have options. You are strongly encouraged to seek professional assistance and guidance.

If You Need Medical Attention

- For life threatening conditions,
 - Call 119 - or –
 - Go to the nearest hospital Emergency Department.

If You Aren't Sure What to Do - Explore Your Options

A person who has experienced a sexual assault is encouraged to obtain information, support and counseling. Counselors at a variety of agencies, both on and off campus, can help a person decide which steps to take such as: seeking medical attention, preserving evidence, obtaining counseling or reporting to the police. Remember -- you are not to blame. No one deserves to be assaulted.

The University will make every effort reasonably possible to preserve an individual's privacy and protect the confidentiality of information. The degree to which confidentiality can be protected depends upon the professional role of the person being consulted. An individual may speak confidentially with certain persons in legally protected roles. These confidential resources include: counselors at the YWCA Sexual Assault Center at Stanford, the Help Center, Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS), medical clinicians and clergy. State law permits law enforcement authorities to keep confidential the identity of a person officially reporting a sexual assault. The Stanford Department of Public Safety maintains such confidentiality.

- Students, faculty and staff may consult the following confidential resources:
 - The YWCA Sexual Assault Center at Stanford
http://ywca-sv.org/programs/rape_crisis_center.php
 - ✓ The YWCA Sexual Assault Center at Stanford is located on the first floor of the Health Center and serves faculty, staff, students, spouses and anyone needing help.
 - ✓ Assistance is available 24-hours a day via a telephone.
 - ✓ The YWCA helps coordinate access to a wide range of campus services related to the aftermath of an assault, such as medical assistance, law enforcement, legal and judicial services, and emotional/spiritual support.
 - Office of Religious Life <http://www.stanford.edu/group/religiouslife/>
 - University Ombudsperson <http://www.stanford.edu/dept/ombuds/>
 - ✓ Stanford's Ombudsperson can assist students, staff, and faculty with information and assessment of options regarding employment, housing, and other University needs following an incident.
- Students may consult the following confidential resources:
 - Counseling and Psychological Services <http://vaden.stanford.edu/caps/>
 - Medical clinicians at Health Services <http://vaden.stanford.edu/>
- Faculty and staff may consult the following confidential resources:

- Help Center <http://www.stanford.edu/dept/helpcenter/>
- Personal physicians.
- Other Campus Resources
 - Judicial Affairs Office <http://www.stanford.edu/dept/vpsa/judicialaffairs/about/welcome.htm>
This office can help you explore potential university judicial disciplinary actions that could follow a sexual assault incident in compliance with the Stanford Judicial Charter, which governs internal disciplinary sanctions and procedures.

University Sanctions Against Sexual Assault and Sexual Harassment Offenders

- For Stanford University faculty and staff, possible sanctions for proved violations range from censure to dismissal from the University.
- For students, the process and procedures governing disciplinary cases of a sensitive nature can be found on the Judicial Affairs website, <http://www.stanford.edu/dept/vpsa/judicialaffairs/judicialprocess/arp.htm>. The Judicial Affairs Office (JAO) will investigate formal complaints of sexual assault and sexual misconduct and guide students through the process. For responding students that have been found responsible, possible sanctions range from formal warning to expulsion from the University.
- Alternate Review Process (ARP) is the Office of Judicial Affairs response to allegations of misconduct relating to sexual assault, sexual harassment, dating violence or stalking. The ARP was created to be more sensitive to privacy concerns such as involving a smaller number of specially trained individuals in the process, allowing for a shorter timeline and protecting the rights of all people involved. The charge must be filed no more than two years after the alleged misconduct.
- The first step in the ARP process is to file an official complaint in the Office of Judicial Affairs and reach out to campus resources for help and support.
- After an alleged sex offense has occurred, Stanford will change a survivor's academic and living situation if he or she requests it and the request can be reasonably accommodated. The accuser and the accused are entitled to due process, including the right to be accompanied by a person of his or her choice at all stages of the disciplinary process and the right to the same information regarding the outcome of the disciplinary proceedings.
- Judicial policy applies year-round to all on-campus activities, and to any acts that threaten the safety and integrity of the University community regardless of where such acts occur.
- In some cases, sexual assault also may constitute sexual harassment. See Administrative Guide Memo 23.2, http://adminguide.stanford.edu/23_2.pdf for the procedures to follow to make a complaint of sexual harassment. For more information, please refer to the Stanford University Sexual Harassment Homepage at <http://harass.stanford.edu>

Reporting a Sexual Assault to the Police

We encourage people to report sexual assaults to the police. Reporting a sexual assault to the police may seem intimidating, but you don't need to feel scared or embarrassed. Explore your options with someone from the YWCA before contacting the police. Bring a friend or advocate with you when you speak with the police. Reporting a crime can help you regain a sense of personal power and control.

Contact the local police:

- For a sexual assault that occurs on a Stanford branch campus
- For an off-campus sexual assault

This sexual Assault Section was written in compliance with the 1992 Higher Education Amendments, which has mandated requirements for preventing, reporting, and investigating sex offenses that occur on campus. Portions of this section were taken from Administrative Guide Memo 23.3 Sexual Assault.

EMERGENCY RESPONSE AND EVACUATION

In the event of a significant emergency or dangerous situation on campus that involves an immediate threat to the health or safety of the population, Stanford in Kyoto staff will initiate, without delay, use of the 201X Emergency Contact List upon confirmation by first responders of the significant emergency or dangerous situation. Taking into account the safety of the community, the notification will be sent to everyone Kyoto 201X Emergency Contact system unless issuance of the notification will, in the professional judgment of responsible authorities, compromise efforts to assist a victim or to contain, respond to, or otherwise mitigate the emergency. The content of the message will vary depending on the situation. The people who can initiate an emergency message include Director Horvat and staff (Ms Uehira, Ms Watanabe and Ms Takano).

Regularly scheduled drills, exercises, and appropriate follow-up activities, designed for system assessment will be conducted each year. Emergency Evacuation plans and maps are posted in Kyoto Center on the 2nd floor of Meitoku-kan building, Doshisha university.

MISSING PERSON POLICY

If you believe someone might be missing, notify the Director Horvat or Hiromi Uehira (Student and Academic Services Coordinator) immediately. Branch staff in receipt of information that a student may be missing, should immediately report the matter to the local police, inform the Director of BOSP, and call the Stanford Department of Public Safety as soon as possible. The Department of Public Safety can be reached 24 hours per day, seven days per week by calling +1-650-924-3209. The Department of Public Safety will notify University Officials.

US Federal law mandates that the University provide students with an option of specifying person(s) to contact in the event that he or she has been determined by the police to be a missing person. An option will be given to students to specify this person when they perform the Registrar's annual online check-in procedure. Federal law also requires the University to inform students that an emergency contact will be notified within (24) hours of the person being reported as missing. For non-emancipated minors, a custodial parent or guardian will be notified in addition to any listed emergency contact(s).

In addition to the minimum notifications that will be made under federal law, Stanford may make additional notifications as necessary as provided by FERPA to resolve a safety emergency; this could include notifying parents or guardians even when they were not specifically listed by a student as an emergency contact.

AVAILABILITY OF THE ANNUAL SAFETY AND SECURITY REPORT

Each year email notification is made to all enrolled students and employees that provide the police web site address to access this report. The report can also be accessed on the BOSP website. A paper copy of the report is available upon request by contacting the either staff at Stanford in Kyoto or the Department of Public Safety at +1-650-723-9633 or by email to PublicSafety@lists.stanford.edu.

JEANNE CLERY ACT CRIME STATISTICS

The procedures for preparing the annual disclosure of crime statistics include: (1) collecting and reporting statistics on crimes committed on the Stanford in Kyoto campus; and (2) compilation of incident reports filed with Stanford in Kyoto security authorities. Crime statistics reported to any of these sources are included in the Clery Act report for the calendar year in which the crime was reported. In addition to this report, the statistics are reported by the Stanford Clery Coordinator to the Department of Education with the Stanford in Kyoto Program listed as a branch campus.

CRIME STATISTICS

In compliance with the Federal Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act of 1998 (formerly the Crime Awareness and Campus Security Act of 1990), the following page contains reported crime statistics for the most recent three-year period for the Stanford in Kyoto campus, including incidents reported to the local Police. PLEASE NOTE* All statistics below were compiled and supplied by the Director of the Stanford in Kyoto campus. Visit Stanford Department of Public Safety's web site for more information: <http://police.stanford.edu>.

Definition of Locations and Crime Categories

Locations
Campus: Statistics include the academic and research areas, all student / staff residences on campus. Dorm: no on-campus housing or dorms are available.
Non-campus statistics consist of off-campus buildings and property owned or controlled by Stanford University
Public property statistics consist of streets, sidewalks, and parking facilities contiguous to, but not within, the campus. These statistics are provided voluntarily by surrounding agencies.
Crime Categories
Homicide: Murder / Non-negligent Manslaughter: The willful killing of one human being by another. Negligent Manslaughter: The killing of another person through gross negligence.
Forcible sex offenses: Any sexual act directed against another person, forcibly or against that person's will. Includes forcible rape (totalled separately), forcible sodomy, sexual assault with an object, and forcible fondling.
Non-forcible sex offenses: Unlawful non-forcible sexual intercourse. Includes incest and statutory rape.
Sex Offenses Reported to University Counselors: This category includes incidents reported to University officials, regardless of where they occurred, in which the victim chose not to file police reports.
Robbery: The taking or attempting to take anything of value from the care, custody, or control of a person or persons by force or threat of force or violence and/or by putting the victim in fear.
Aggravated assault: An unlawful attack by one person upon another for the purpose of inflicting severe or aggravated bodily injury. This type of assault usually is accompanied by the use of a weapon or by means likely to produce death or great bodily harm. (It is not necessary that injury result from an aggravated assault when a gun, knife, or other weapon is used which could and probably would result in serious personal injury if the crime were successfully completed.)
Burglary: Structures - the unlawful entry into a building or other structure with the intent to commit a felony or a theft. Vehicles - the unlawful entry into a locked vehicle with the intent to commit a felony or a theft.
