Invite Me!

The people in this congregation are engaged in so many interesting things. I would love nothing more than for you to invite me to any of the events in which you take part. This also applies to your workplaces. Please know that I know that you've got an active, interesting life, and it's not limited to UniChu. I would love to visit you at work, at home, or come to a concert/performance in which you are taking part. Drop me a note!
