University Church: The Church Home of Episcopal Lutheran Campus Ministry at Stanford University

Lent As we continue into Lent, we embrace some new Lenten disciplines: maybe prayer (for the world, the neighborhood, the church, our friends, our enemies, ourselves); maybe fasting (going without a meal, fasting for a day, eating more simply for the season, conserving energy, conserving water, being more aware of our consumption); maybe good works (volunteering, donating, learning more about issue that are affecting parts of the world far from us, and reflecting on how we might make a difference). Let me know how Lent has played out for you this year, and how you have noticed the presence of God, even in the unexpected places. - PG
