IMPORTANT ~ ADDITIONAL INSTRUCTIONS AND REQUIREMENTS

*Students taking both quarters of the Winter/Spring Philosophy Introduction to the Humanities (IHUM) may count five units towards the introductory Philosophy requirement.

**Oxford Tutorials in Philosophy may be used for the 13 elective units and for 194 if necessary. They cannot be used for core requirements without special approval from the advisor and the Philosophy Undergraduate Director.

PHILOSOPHY 80 IS A COURSE SPECIALLY DESIGNED FOR STANFORD PHILOSOPHY MAJORS. IT SHOULD BE TAKEN AS EARLY AS POSSIBLE, WITH NO SUBSTITUTIONS.

ADDITIONAL UNITSIndividual Work for Undergraduates (Phil 197, 0-15 units)

Students may sign up with individual faculty members for a directed reading or other kinds of individual work. Students are discouraged from taking Directed Reading courses on topics that are covered by other courses offered in the Department. Units of Individual Work do not count towards the 55-unit requirement.

Senior Tutorial (Phil 196, 5 units)

Students who wish to write a Senior Honors Thesis may register for these units, which are in addition to the General Program Requirements. They may be taken in any quarter of the Senior Year.

The Dualist (Phil 198, 1 unit)

The Dualist is the Stanford undergraduate philosophy journal. May be taken 1-3 quarters.
